

Dear students, doctoral candidates, university alumni!

We would like to invite you to the 28th edition of The Summer Seminar, organized by The Tertio Millennio Institute and The Ethics and Public Policy Center (Washington, DC). Especially we invite students involved in life of their universities or social, political or religious communities and organizations.

Taking place between 1st and 18th July 2019 in Cracow, it is available to students and graduates from North America and from Central, Eastern and South-Western Europe – Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Belarus, Russia, Ukraine, Romania, Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro, Macedonia, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Slovenia, Moldova, Georgia, Armenia.

Each year's seminar group includes 30 -36 students.

Classes,

given in English, will regard issues revolving around culture, politics, and economy of the free society, democracy and capitalism. Lectures reflect on its contemporary history in view of the social teaching of the Church, particularly in reference to John Paul II (Centesimus Annus, 1991). The school is opened for people of all denominations and beliefs.

Lectures will be given by famous religious and political leaders such as George Weigel and Maciej Zięba OP.

We support 12 fellowships for East-Central Europe, which include tuition fees, lodging, meals and excursions. Students will have to cover only the travel expenses to and from Cracow. For people from East European countries we provide visa invitations to Poland. Deadline for applications is April 28th 2019.
