

Dunja Duić, PhD, LL.M ( Ghent) works as Assistant Professor at the Faculty of law Osijek and she is Head of the Department of the Constitutional and European law. Professional orientation towards EU law derives from Postgraduate Master of Advanced studies in European and Comparative Law at Faculty of Law Gent, Belgium, LL.M and Post-graduate Study of European Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb, Croatia, PH.D. Main professional interests include EU Law, External relations of EU, EU institutions and comparative politics, migration and human rights. She is teaching EU law at the Integrated Undergraduate and Graduate University Studies Postgraduate doctoral studies and at the Department of cultural studies. She has participated in five international and scientific projects In 2014, she was Erasmus visiting professor at Johannes Kepler University in Linz and University of Zagagoza and she has been visiting scholar at University of Insubria in 2017. She has participated in numerous scientific conferences and published journal and conference papers, book chapters. She is a book editor and series editor of EU and comparative law issues and challenges series.